

About Us

Since its inception in 2004, Shiok Kitchen Catering (previously known as SK Catering) has been an established name in the catering service industry. Grown from providing mainly Thai food, it now serves a vast selection of cuisines ranging from your local delights to Chinese cuisine and western gourmet dishes. We aim to become the preferred catering service provider for off-site corporate and social events in and around Singapore, allowing individuals and companies to experience a delightful gastronomical adventure.

A Halal certified catering service provider, Shiok Kitchen Catering adheres to the highest standards of catering for both food and service, our well-trained catering staff guarantees professional and efficient service during your event. Our dedication to food quality can be seen through the selection of great tasting food and diverse menu choices guaranteed to take your event to the next level.

We provide services for buffet catering, tea receptions, corporate catering, bento catering, sit-sit-down dinners, cocktail receptions, thematic baby showers and wedding services.
