INTRODUCTION

WHAT TO EXPECT

From L to R: Levin, Erin, Dexter, Eugene

MEET YOUR TEAM

Bottled Groove Photography started as a husband and wife team in 2016, and officially registered as a company in 2019.

Eugene, the lead photographer, first picked up photography when he was based in Bangkok for two years. He has since been actively involved in event photography and primarily weddings for the past seven years. Recently, he has revisited film photography and is currently implementing it in his wedding work. Erin is the brain and the spine of the company.

In 2020 and 2022 Levin and Dexter joined the team respectively, followed by Elle in 2024.

Bottled Groove Photography's focus is to document your wedding day, so that you may invoke precious memories and retell your story a decade or two in the future to your loved ones. They believe that everyone should embrace the messiness of a wedding day, as raw as they come.

And yes, photographs are time machines.

Our Style

Our purpose is to document the day as raw as it can be. There will be less scripting but more capturing of the day's little moments, as mundane or as exciting as it is. That is what makes your wedding, truly yours.

If you are looking for someone to photograph over-scripted moments and capture plenty of beautiful photographs with bokeh (blurred-out background), thus projecting a beautiful front for your wedding, then maybe we're not the right fit.

The images we produce are not going to win awards probably, but if you are looking for someone to document down and story-tell (with creative input of course) the genuine, honest progression of your wedding day, however, it may turn out to be, then look no further.

Our Motto

Weddings are not meant to be perfect. We should try to always 'embrace the messiness' of the wedding day and relive the moments through the photographs and videos that we seek to capture for you.

"It's not about finding the most expensive photographer, the most popular photographer or the most wanted photographer in town. It's important to find one that you can click & communicate with."

- Brina and Donovan

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Do we get a discount if we booked both pre-wedding and actual day wedding together?

There is a 5% off the total rate if you book both packages together. This bundle discount cannot be combined with other discounts e.g. partner referrals. Discount is not applicable for Elle as well.

Why are your photos not in focus (blur) at times?

Our focus is to capture moments and documenting down memories. Sometimes, these moments can easily slip by and we'd rather capture it than miss it. In addition, our edits is reminiscent of nostalgic film photographs. If you like tack sharp photos with overly directed poses, and overly edited photographs, then perhaps we might not be the photographers you should be looking at.

What are signature style edits?

Signature edits include making cropping, lighting, shadow and white balance adjustments with our signature colour tones. The photographs that you see on our social media pages and website are edited in our signature edits. Signature style edits do not include retouching – which are removing of acne, slimming, removing of unwanted objects etc.

Great! I would love to proceed with the booking. How can I do so?

Simply review and sign your e-signature, together with a 50% deposit payment to book and confirm the slot.

Note that the date will still be an open date until the deposit payment is confirmed.

“As we scrolled through Eugene’s work, we immediately fell in love with his photos and secretly wished we had discovered him before our PWS.”

- Jaime and Daryl

“It was not easy finding a photographer who prioritises storytelling/documenting over posey shots and so we’re so glad we stumbled upon Eugene and his portfolio. The photos turned out really well and we still gush over them up till this day.”

- Jallyn and Kang Yu

“What really impressed us the most was how artsy his candid pictures were and the emotions/feels there were in those pictures. Nothing too pose-y, nothing too over-the-top and everything that was just the right amount of us in our natural unscripted state.”

- Anqi and Gary

“Working with Dexter for our wedding photography was one of the key highlights of our wedding.”

- Eunice and Julius

“Once we read about Eugene’s photojournalistic philosophy, we knew that he was the one. What we wanted wasn’t the grand pose-y shots that made us look like the models that we weren’t, but a documentation of events as they happened and people as they were, captured with an eye for the beauty of simple, everyday joys.

- Wan Yee and Vivick

“Levin was extremely patient and has incredible eye.”

- Marianne and Joshua
