

POLLEN

A Bespoke Experience
- Made with You in Mind -

Housed within the well acclaimed Flower Dome at Gardens by the Bay, known as one of the most iconic destination in Singapore.

The Flower Dome is the largest greenhouse in the world as listed in the 2015 Guinness Book of World Records at 1.2 hectares and replicates a cool-dry Mediterranean climate. It features eight gardens which exhibits exotic flowers and plants from the Mediterranean and semi-arid regions from five different continents.

Venue provides guests with a memorable time marveling the uniqueness of the setting. Overlooking a panoramic view of Marina Bay waterfront and experience the lush Mediterranean garden in flower dome. The space entralls with its picturesque backdrop of everlasting spring, dining at Pollen is a unique experience like no other.

The conservatories, designed by Wilkinson Eyre and Grant Associates, are intended to be an energy-efficient showcase of sustainable building technologies and to provide an all-weather edutainment space within the Gardens. The Flower Dome is described as world's largest column less glasshouse.

Weddings
at

The contemporary dining spaces at Pollen exude a sense of deformed fine dining, with an under-stated, elegant decor set amid the relaxing backdrop of the lush gardens of the flower dome setting.

Pollen occupies a double level space with the main dining room on the lower level, and a cocktail space with an outdoor vibe on the upper level. One of the signature concepts at Pollen is dining within the garden atmosphere.

FOOD

Michael draws inspiration from all aspects of life - be it the seemingly inedible artichoke, a beautiful hand stitched napkin or a handcrafted plate - any of these can serve as the starting point to inspire a new dish or spark a new idea.

Marrying these aspects with old Mediterranean cuisine results in an eclectic blend of influences that gives rise to his unique brand of ingredients, dishes and cooking techniques.

Pollen offers contemporary Mediterranean cuisine aiming to deliver an impeccable dining experience. It is a place where one feels naturally at ease be it for a casual meal or a celebration of a once in a lifetime experience. Pollen provides a unique experience like no other, bespoke to your individual needs.

CHEF

Michael's culinary philosophy "life is about the ingredients" reflects his commitment to the best quality ingredients which forms the foundation of his cooking.

His cooking style is minimalist, he firmly believes that the quality of ingredients is of the utmost importance as the focus is to use creativity to define delicious in a new and unique way.
