ABOUT US

Watabe Wedding Group's origins trace back to a kimono rental shop in 1953. Since then, it has evolved into a premier bridal company, offering diverse wedding services globally in locations such as Japan, Guam, Hawaii, Bali, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Europe, and Singapore. With over 24 chapels and 12 hotels worldwide, they've facilitated weddings for over 430,000 couples, averaging 30,000 couples annually.

Established on January 5th, 2011, Watabe Singapore Pte Ltd operates as a subsidiary of Watabe Wedding Corporation, overseeing operations at Chijmes Hall and Alcove at Caldwell House. As the official venue operator Watabe Wedding Singapore provides comprehensive wedding planning services, ensuring a holistic Wedding Experience.

CHIJMES HALL

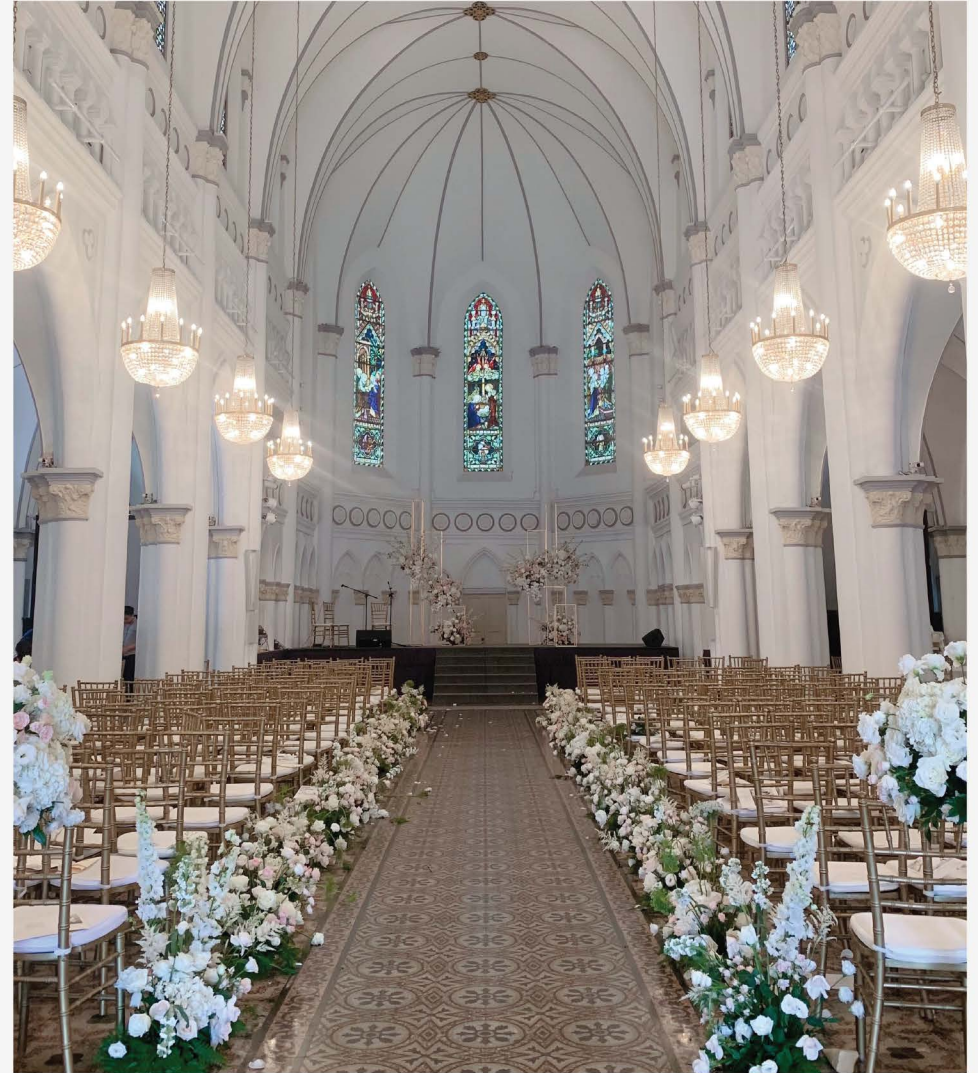

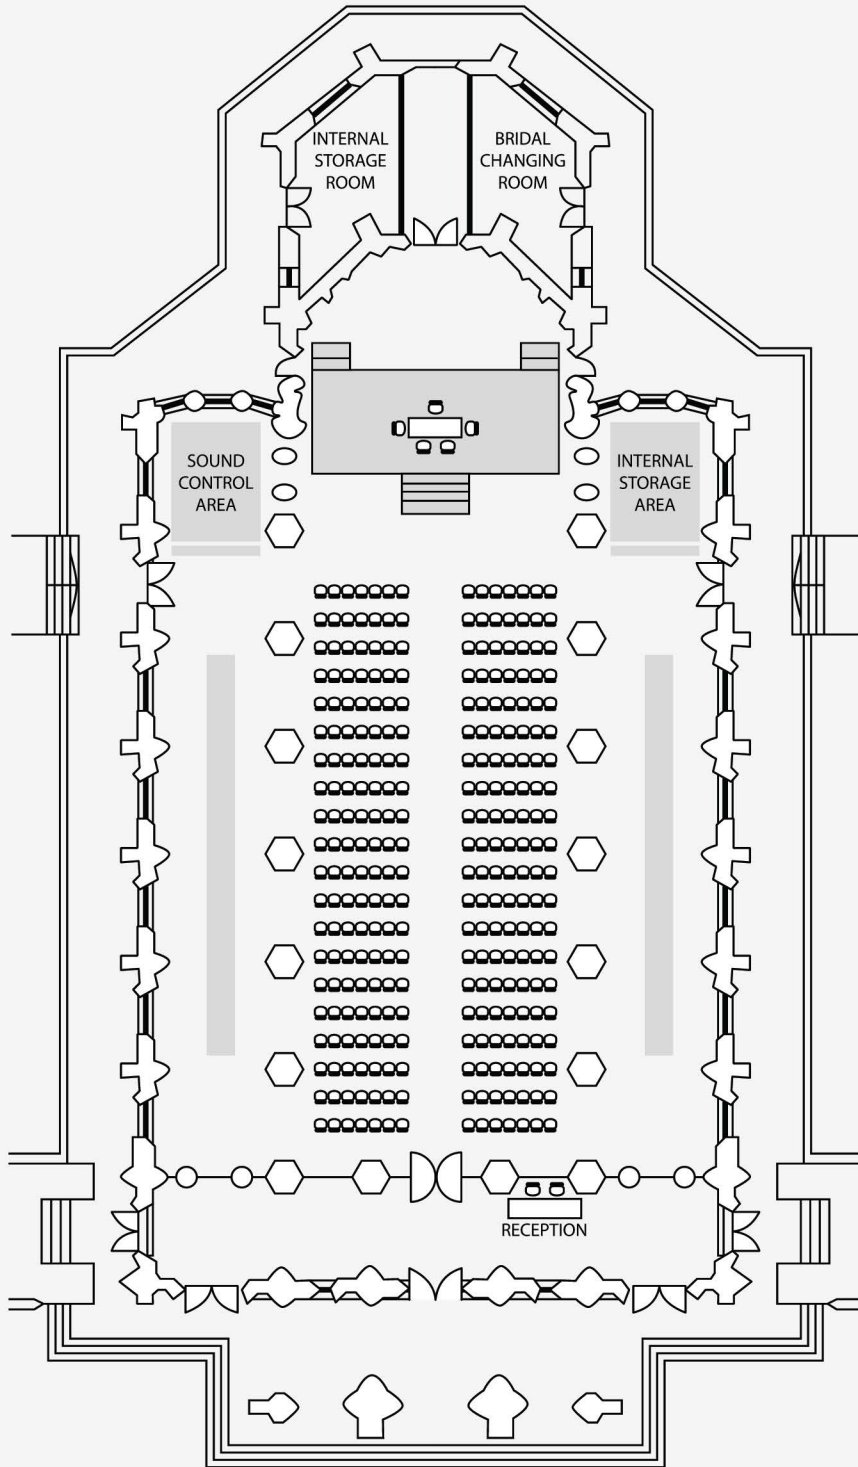

CHIJMES Hall represents the epitome of sophistication, providing an unparalleled venue for the realization of your dream wedding. Erected in 1901, this 19th-century neo-gothic chapel has since been designated as a revered National Monument of Singapore, owing to its striking architectural features. Within its pristine interior, crystal chandeliers adorn the lofty ceilings, while natural light filters through intricate stained glass windows, bestowing an ambiance of majestic beauty. This immaculate setting offers couples the perfect milieu to exchange vows and commence their matrimonial journey amidst an atmosphere of unparalleled grandeur.

CONCEPTS

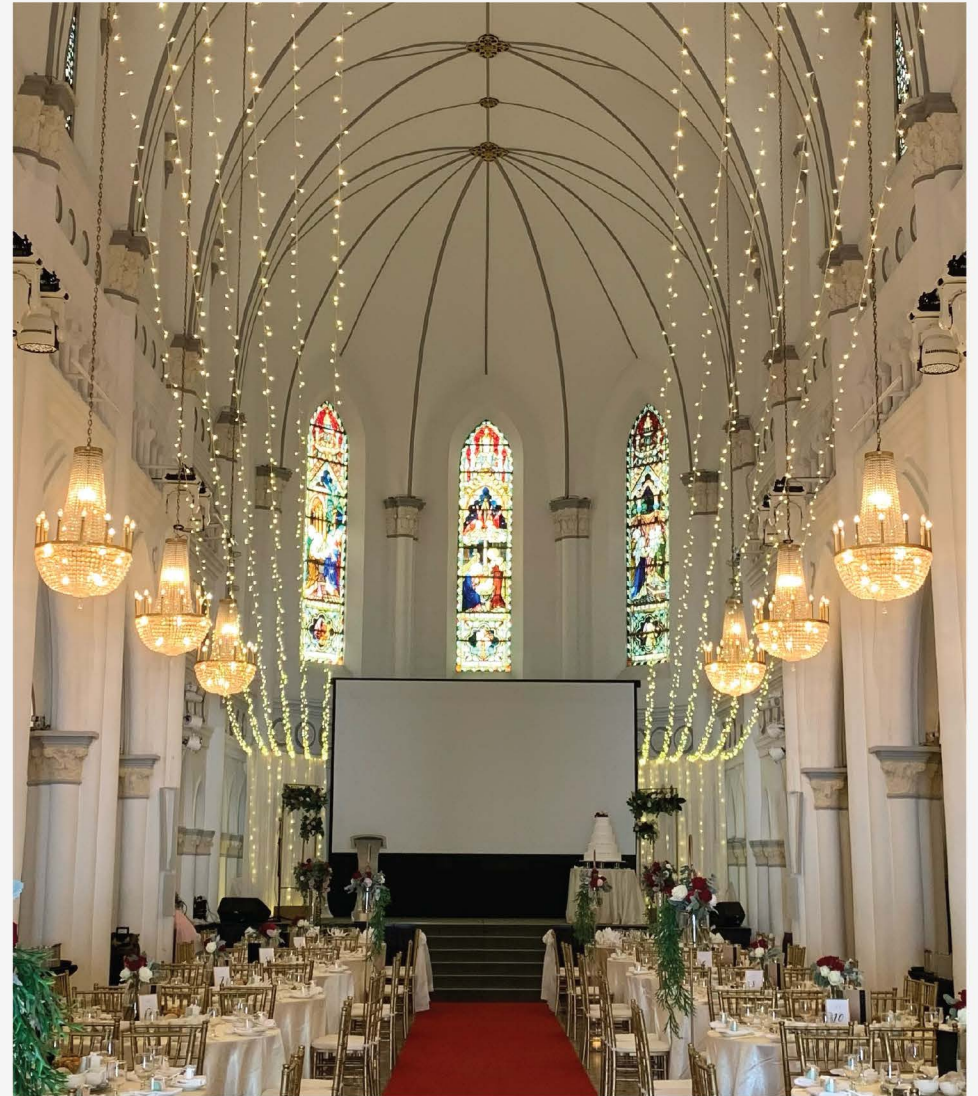

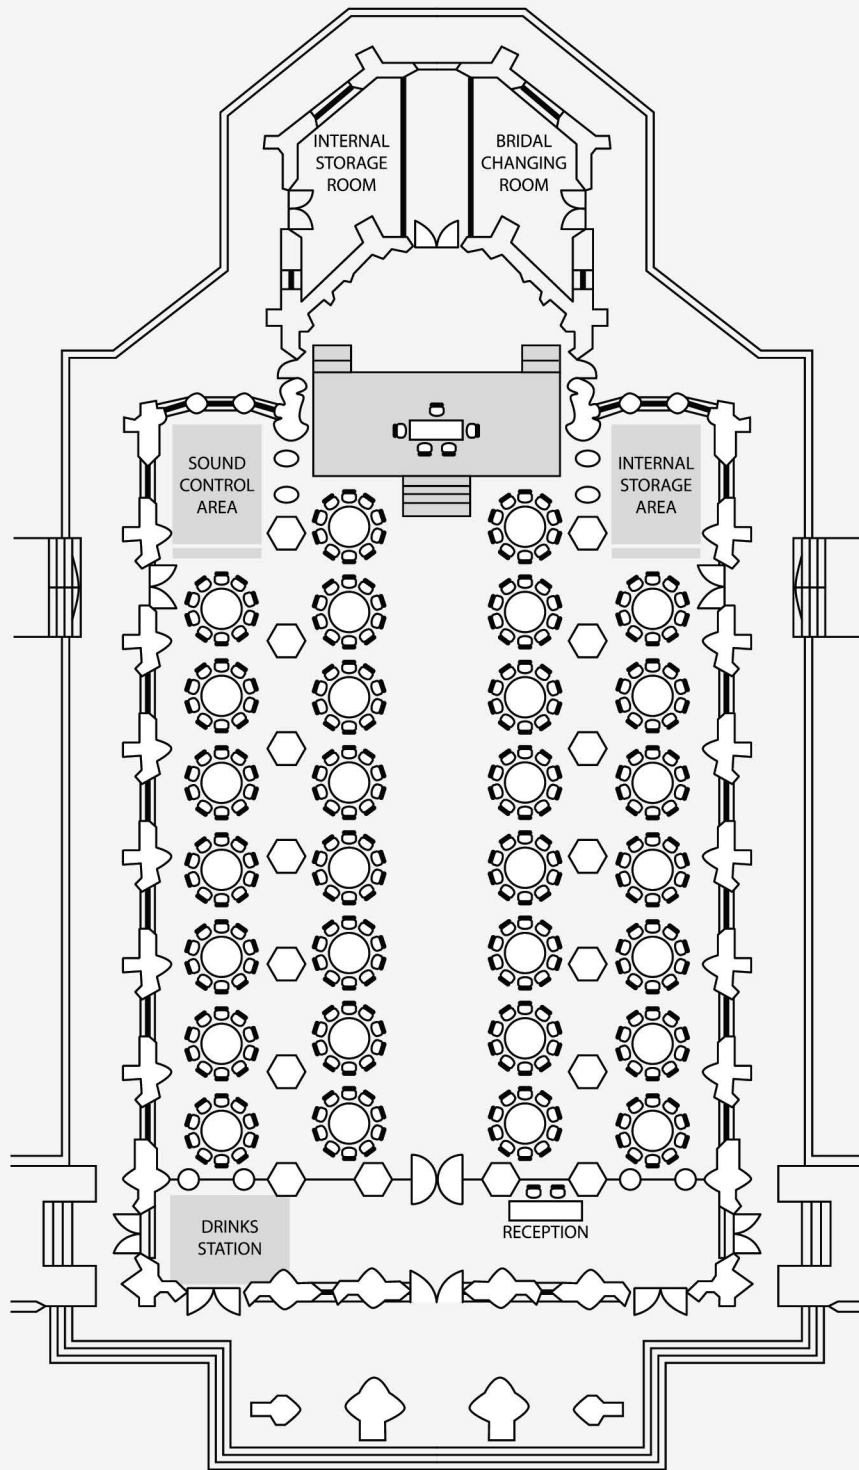

CHIJMES Hall's sophisticated chandelier bears significant historical importance, having witnessed the weddings and celebrations of many. With customizable table layout settings, your wedding becomes uniquely yours. You can walk down the aisle adorned with unique tiles, choose to decorate the stage with a stunning backdrop, or opt for a screen displaying your wedding video. This hall ensures that your wedding day is perfectly suited for grand weddings and solemnisation ceremonies alike.

ALCOVE AT CALDWELL HOUSE

Gazetted as a National Monument in 1990, Caldwell House is one of the oldest buildings in Singapore. Its neoclassical style design is one of the few surviving works of renowned architect, G.D Coleman. The Grand Gallery on level 2, renamed Alcove is managed by Watabe Wedding Singapore.

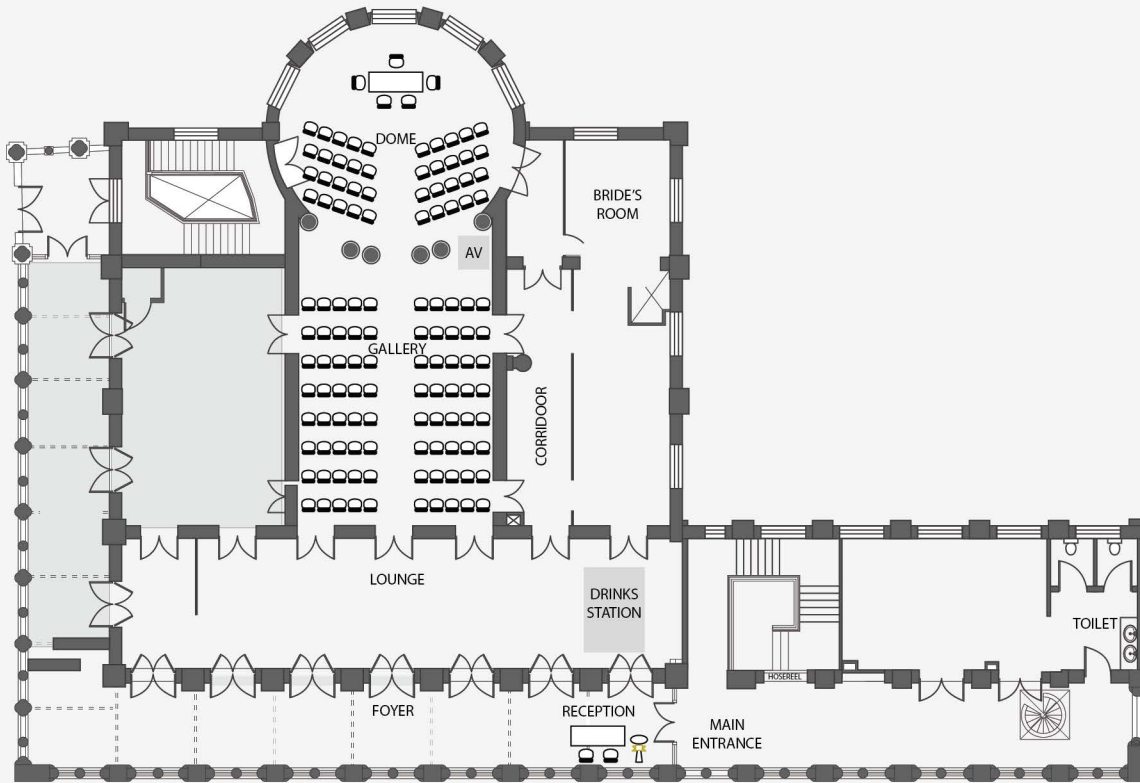

Today, the upper level interior still features an original wall verse, “MARCHE EN MA PRESENCE ET SOIS PARFAIT” in French, that translates to “Walk Along With Me And Be Perfect”. This brings a deeper meaning to have an intimate wedding held here.
